ennio International a finalist in the SA Premier's Business & Export Awards 2023

ennio International is proud to be representing excellence in our field by being named a finalist at the 2023 South Australian Premier's Business and Export Awards.

The awards recognise and celebrate the accomplishments of South Australian businesses across a diverse number of categories, as written by Anthony Caldwell on the Business SA website:

'Andrew Kay, CEO of South Australia's Chamber of Commerce and Industry, said he was impressed by both the calibre and number of nominations received this year. More than 250 businesses entered this year's awards, submitting 600 nominations across 24 categories.'

"We were pleasantly surprised to receive an overwhelming response to the awards in their first year.

"South Australia is clearly home to a growing number of innovative and high-achieving businesses, of which we can be very proud. They deserve to be recognised and celebrated," said Mr Kay.

"It was a challenge for the judges to select the finalists, given the exceptional depth of quality nominations across all categories," said Mr Kay.

The awards recognise and celebrate the outstanding contribution local businesses make to the social, environmental, and economic well-being of our community, recognising businesses across a diverse number of categories.'

ennio International would like to congratulate the outstanding finalists and winners of the awards.
